iLevel Solutions to Exhibit at 2009 Dow Jones Private Equity Analyst Conference
iLevel to Demonstrate its Portfolio Company Reporting System Solution

New York, NY (September 9, 2009) – iLevel Solutions, a leading provider of portfolio performance analysis and reporting solutions, today announced that the company will be exhibiting at the 16th Annual Private Equity Analyst Conference (PEAC) scheduled for September 16-17, 2009 at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel in New York City.

iLevel provides an innovative suite of commercial software products targeted at the Alternative Investment Management market. iLevel's flagship product, The Portfolio Company Reporting System \(PCRS\), is a completely integrated solution enabling private equity firms to gauge the financial health of the companies in their portfolios. With PCRS, the focus of analysts and deal teams shifts from data collection to reporting, analysis, risk mitigation and investigating new opportunities. Through the use of PCRS, investment professionals gain access to critical fund and portfolio data along with key financial and operating metrics with ease and speed. Information is available through flexible, Excel-based dashboard views, configurable graphical reports with drill-down capabilities, and user-defined analyses for instant insight into critical metrics.

About Dow Jones Private Equity Analyst Conference

As the industry's premier learning and networking event, this conference will take the lead and provide attendees with clear, in-depth insight about the challenges in today's market - on Wall Street, on Capitol Hill and around the world - and the innovative solutions private equity investors, fund managers and management teams are using to leverage the opportunities created by the downturn.
